

Data Privacy Notice

The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of St. Chad's Lichfield

Your Personal Data – What is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Who are we?

The PCC of St. Chad's, Lichfield is the data controller. This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

How do we process your personal data?

The PCC of St. Chad's, Lichfield complies with its obligations under the 'GDPR' by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following:

- To enable us to both, effectively communicate between relevant parties and provide the various services both voluntary and those which carry a service charge for the benefit of the public (primarily within the Parish) and service users.
- To administer records covering all Church groups, service users, and data relating to financial information.
- To fundraise, promote the interests of the PCC.
- To manage and coordinate our employees and volunteers.
- To fulfill our own legal obligations.
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including processing gift aid).
- To inform you of news, events, activities, and services held at St. Chad's, Lichfield.

What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject, so that we can keep you informed of news, events, and services at St. Chads, Lichfield as well as processing gift aid donations and any other diocesan-wide events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security and protection law, or a collective agreement.
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided:
 - The processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - There is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

Sharing your data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish with your consent,

Data Privacy Notice – PCC of St. Chad’s, Lichfield

How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which is available from the Church of England website:

<https://www.churchofengland.org/more/libraries-and-archives/records-management-guides>.

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC of St. Chad’s, Lichfield holds about you;
- The right to request that the PCC of St. Chad’s, Lichfield corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC of St. Chad’s, Lichfield to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

Contact Details

To exercise all relevant rights, queries of complaints please in the first instance contact the PCC Secretary/ Parish Administrator at:

42 St. Chad’s Road, Lichfield, WS13 7ND

Tel: 01543 416595

Email: office@saintchads.org.uk

You can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113 or via email, <https://ico.org.uk/contact-us/email/> or at the Information Commissioner’s Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.